The FAW's appointed broker. #TogetherStronger

Football Association of Wales | Liability report form

Guidance notes:

The claim form is to be completed in full by you if a claim has been made against you.

Once the claim form has been fully completed, you should send this and any other correspondence received from the Third Party or their legal representatives to:

Bluefin Sport
Castlemead
Lower Castle Street
Bristol BS1 3AG

When the claim form and supporting documentation has been received by us, we will forward all documentation to the insurer XL Catlin for their consideration.

We would recommend that you keep copies of all correspondence you send to us for your records.

Important

It is imperative that you:

- Do not make any payment to the third party or their representatives;
- Do not offer or promise payment;
- Do not respond to or acknowledge any third party correspondence - if you do respond, you should simply say that you have received the correspondence and have passed this to your insurance broker;
- Do not admit liability in any way, as by doing so you may prejudice your position and forfeit the benefits afforded to you in the terms of your policy.

In order that insurers can deal with the defence of the claim effectively, any request from them requesting documentation must be complied with.

How we use your data

To provide our services, we need to collect and use information about individuals such as their name and contact details, as well as special categories of personal data (e.g. about their health information) and information about criminal convictions and offences. The purposes for which we use personal data may include arranging insurance cover, handling claims, for crime prevention. More information about our use of personal data is provided in the Marsh Privacy Notice at <https://www.marsh.com/uk/privacy-notice.html> or in hard copy on request by emailing or writing to Data Protection Officer, Marsh Ltd, Tower Place, London EC3R 5BU or dataprotection@marsh.com.

Providing the services may involve the disclosure of personal data to third parties such as insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, premium finance providers, sub-contractors, our affiliates and to certain regulatory bodies who may require your information themselves for the purposes described in the Marsh Privacy Notice.

Depending on the circumstances, the use of personal data described in this notice may involve a transfer of data to countries outside the UK and the European Economic Area that have less robust data protection laws. Any such transfer will be done with appropriate safeguards in place.

In some circumstances, we (and other insurance market participants) may need to collect and use special categories of personal data (e.g. health information) and/or information relating to criminal convictions and offences. Generally, we are able to do this because it is necessary for the insurance activities that we undertake or for fraud prevention purposes.

Where you are providing us with information about a person other than yourself, you agree to notify them of our use of their personal data and, if requested by us, obtain their consent to our use of any special categories of personal data such as health information and information relating to criminal convictions and offences (e.g. by requiring the individual to sign a consent form).
